17. ☐ LEGISLATION Called Tom Mooney, Minority Counsel to the House Judiciary Subcommittee on Courts, Civil Liberties, and the Administration of Justice. I asked if what appeared in the Congressional Record was accurate, namely that the Committee was going to hold mark-up on H. R. 214 electronic surveillance. He said it was not true that mark-up sessions were planned in the near future, and he would keep me advised.

19. ☐ LIAISON Called Senator Hubert H. Humphrey (D. , Minn.) and asked for his assistance in persuading Senator George McGovern (D. , S. Dak.) not to bring up on the Senate floor his amendment (#959 to H. R. 9005) due to security and other considerations. Senator Humphrey said he agreed 100% with us and would do what he could although he didn't know how effective he would be because "there is a madness around here. " I told him we would appreciate whatever he could do on our behalf.

We talked about the dismissal of Mr. Colby, which the Senator deplored. He said the Director had done a fine job and was "an innocent victim. "

20. ☐ LIAISON Bill Ashworth, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, called and said they had never received answers to the questions raised during the 29 July 1975 briefing by Mr. Duckett of the Arms Control, International Organizations and Security Agreements Subcommittee. He said they had received answers to the questions submitted after the briefing but in the transcript there were a number of questions which remain unanswered. I apologized and said we would check into this right away. He said it was his error also and said there was no great rush.
